- c. details of properties, assets or investments held by customers and their spouses;
- d. details of other assets or liabilities (actual or contingent) of customers and their spouses;
- e. information obtained by the Branch in the ordinary course of the continuation of the banking and other financial relationship (for example, when customers write cheques or deposit money or generally communicate verbally or in writing with the Branch, by means of documentation or telephone recording system, as the case may be);
- f. information as to credit standing provided by a referee, credit reference agency or debt collection agency in connection with a request to collect a debt due from any customer to the Branch; and
- g. information which is in the public domain.

2.3 Personal data held by the Branch regarding employees and potential employees may include the following:

- a. name, address, contact details, date and place of birth and nationality of employees and potential employees and their dependents and their identity card and/or passport numbers and place and date of issue thereof;
- b. additional information compiled about potential employees to assess their suitability for a job in the course of the recruitment selection process which may include references obtained from their current or former employers or other sources;

- c. additional information compiled about employees in the ordinary course of the continuation of the employment relationship which may include records of remuneration and benefits paid to the employees, records of job postings, transfer and training, records of medical checks and sick leave and performance appraisal reports of the employees;
- d. relevant personal data pertaining to former employees which may be required by the Branch to fulfil its obligations to former employees and its legal obligations under the Lei das Relações de Trabalho 勞動關係法 (Labour Relations Law) of Macau; and
- e. information which is in the public domain.

2.4 The Branch may hold other kinds of personal data which it needs in the light of experience and the specific nature of its business.

3. PURPOSES THE PERSONAL DATA IS HELD

3.1 It is necessary for customers to supply the Branch with data in connection with the opening or continuation of accounts and the establishment or continuation of banking facilities or provision of banking and other financial services.

3.2 It is also the case that data is collected from customers in the ordinary course of the continuation of banking and otherwise financial relationships.

3.3 The purposes for which data relating to customers may be used are as follows:

- a. processing and considering applications for products and services and the daily operation of products, services and credit facilities provided to customers;
- b. conducting credit checks at the time of application for credit facilities and at the time of regular or special reviews which normally will take place one or more times each year;

- i. complying with the obligations, requirements or arrangements for disclosing and using data that apply to the Branch or any of its sub-branches or that it is expected to comply according to:
 - (i) any law binding or applying to it within or outside Macau existing currently and in the future; or
 - (ii) any guidelines or guidance given or issued by any legal, regulatory, governmental, tax, law enforcement or other authorities, or self-regulatory or industry bodies or associations of financial services providers within or outside Macau existing currently and in the future;
- j. detecting or conducting investigation regarding any suspicious fraud cases, misconduct (e.g. fake sick leave) or criminal activities; and
- k. for human resources management or purposes relating thereto.

4. SECURITY OF PERSONAL DATA

It is the policy of the Branch to ensure an appropriate level of protection for personal data in order to prevent unauthorised or accidental access, processing, erasure, loss or other use of that data, commensurate with the sensitivity of the data and the harm that would be caused by occurrence of any of the aforesaid events. It is the practice of the Branch to achieve appropriate levels of security protection by restricting physical access to and processing of data by providing secure storage facilities, and incorporating security measures into equipment in which data is held. Measures are taken to ensure the integrity, prudence, and competence of persons having access to personal data. Personal data is only transmitted by secure means to prevent unauthorised or accidental access. If the Branch engages a data processor (whether within or outside Macau) to process personal data on the Branch's behalf, the Branch would adopt contractual or other means to prevent unauthorised or accidental access, processing, erasure, loss or use of the data transferred to the data processor for processing.

5. ACCURACY OF PERSONAL DATA

It is the policy of the Branch to ensure that all practicable steps have been taken to maintain the accuracy of all personal data collected and processed by the Branch having regard to the purpose for which the personal data is or is to be used. Appropriate procedures are implemented such that all personal data is regularly checked and updated. In so far as personal data held by the Branch consists of statements of opinion, all reasonably practicable steps are taken to ensure that any facts cited in support of such statements of opinion are correct.

6. COLLECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

6.1 In the course of collecting personal data, the Branch will provide the individuals concerned with a Personal Information Collection Statement informing them of the purpose of collection, classes of persons to whom the data may be transferred, their rights to access and correct the data, and other relevant information.

6.2 Prior to using any personal data from public domain, due regards will be given by the Branch to observe the original purposes of making the personal data available in the public domain (such as the purpose of establishing the public register in the enabling legislation). The restrictions, if any, imposed by the original data users on further uses and the reasonable expectation of personal data privacy of the individuals concerned will be observed by the Branch.

6.3 In relation to the collection of personal data online, the following practices are adopted:

a. Online Security

The Branch will follow strict standards of security and confidentiality to protect any information provided to the Branch online. Encryption technology is employed for sensitive data transmission on the internet to protect individuals' privacy.

b. Online Correction

Personal data provided to the Branch through an online facility, once submitted, it may not be facilitated to be deleted, corrected or updated online. If deletion, correction or updates are not allowed online, users should approach the Branch.

c. Online Retention

Personal data collected online will be transferred to the Branch for processing. Personal data will normally be retained in the Branch's internet systems' database for a period of not longer than six months.

6.4 Use of Cookies, Tags, Web Logs etc.

Cookies are small pieces of data transmitted from a web server to a web browser. Cookie data is stored on a local hard drive such that the web server can later read back the cookie data from a web browser. This is useful for allowing a website to maintain information on a particular user.

Cookies are designed to be read only by the website that provides them. Cookies cannot be used to obtain data from a user's hard drive, get a user's email address or gather a user's sensitive information.

The Branch uses cookies, tags and web logs to identify users' web browsers for the following purposes:

a. Session Identifier

The Branch will not store user's sensitive information in cookies. Once a session is established, all the communications will use the cookies to identify a user.

b. Analytical Tracking

Users' visits to the Branch's online platforms and social networks (including but not limited to the Branch's websites, mobile applications and Facebook) will be recorded for analysis and information may be collected through technologies such as cookies, tags, web logs, etc. The information collected is anonymous research data and no personally identifiable information is collected. The Branch mainly collects the information to understand more about our users including user demographics, interests and usage patterns, and to improve the effectiveness of our online marketing.

Information may be transferred to or collected by third parties on our behalf (for example, providers of external service like web traffic tracking and reporting, online advertisement serving) for the above use. And the information would not be further transferred to other parties by the third parties. The information collected is anonymous research data and no personally identifiable information is collected or shared by third parties.

Most web browsers are initially set up to accept cookies. Cookies can be chosen to "not accept" by changing the settings on the web browsers but this may disable the access to the Branch's internet banking and certain features on the Branch's online platforms and social networks will not work properly. The Branch will retain the collected information for as long as is necessary to fulfill the original or directly related purpose for which it was collected and to satisfy any applicable statutory or contractual requirements.

The information collected through technologies such as cookies, tags and web logs etc. will be retained for a period of no longer than 3 years.

- 6.5 The Branch installs closed circuit television ("CCTV") (with recording mode) systems at branch premises and automated teller machines primarily for general security purposes to protect the safety of customers and the staff, business assets, intellectual property or other proprietary rights. Access to and use of the CCTV records will be granted to authorised personnel only. The Branch may disclose the CCTV records to third parties including regulatory authorities and law enforcement agencies where it is necessary in order for them to respond to any legal processes or to investigate any incidents or complaints, etc.

Subject to the aforesaid, all CCTV records will be erased according to the Branch's policies and guidelines. The security measures that apply to the CCTV records will be consistent with this Statement.

7. DATA ACCESS REQUESTS AND DATA CORRECTION REQUESTS

- 7.1 It is the policy of the Branch to comply with and process all data access requests (“DARs”) and data correction requests (“DCRs”) in accordance with the provisions of the PDPA, and for all staff concerned to be familiar with the requirements for assisting individuals to make such requests.
- 7.2 The Branch may, subject to the PDPA, impose a fee for complying with a DAR. The Branch is only allowed to charge a DAR requestor for the costs which are directly related to and necessary for complying with a DAR. If a person making a DAR requires an additional copy of the personal data that the Branch has previously supplied pursuant to an earlier DAR, the Branch may charge a fee to cover the full administrative and other costs incurred in supplying that additional copy.
- 7.3 DARs and DCRs to the Branch may be addressed to the Branch’s Data Protection Officer (“DPO”) or other person as specifically advised.

8. RETENTION OF PERSONAL DATA

- 8.1 The Branch takes all practicable steps to ensure that personal data is not kept longer than is necessary for the fulfilment of the purpose for which such data is or is to be used. The Branch usually holds data relating to customer(s) and employee(s) for a period of 7 years or such other period as prescribed by applicable laws and regulations after closure of account, termination of service or cessation of employment.
- 8.2 Regarding personal data collected from job applicants, unless there is subsisting reason that the Branch is obliged to retain the data for a longer period (such as other period as prescribed by applicable laws and regulations), the Branch may hold the data of unsuccessful applicants for a period up to 2 years from the date of rejecting the applicants.
- 8.3 If the Branch engages a data processor (whether within or outside Macau) to process personal data on its behalf, the Branch must adopt contractual or other means to prevent any personal data transferred to the data processor from being kept longer than is necessary for processing the data.

9. OTHER PRACTICES

The following are maintained by the Branch to ensure compliance with the PDPA:

- a. A Log Book recording refusals and reasons of data access/correction requests;
- b. Internal policies and guidelines on compliance with the PDPA for observance by staff of the Branch;
- c. Data Access Request forms (DP(MO)001) and Data Correction Request forms (DP(MO)002) for individual’s requests for access to and correction of personal data held by the Branch.
